Section VII Applicant's Responsibility

Under section 29.885 of the statutes, a permit to destroy wild birds may only be issued upon receipt of a written complaint of damage caused by wild birds. Therefore, the applicant must identify details of damage, economic loss, property damage, unreasonable nuisance, etc., in the space provided below. Without such a permit, section 29.60(1), Wis. Stats., states that it shall be unlawful to put out poison or poison bait.
